Fact Sheet about House Armed Services Committee Patriots

- African Americans served in all of the major battles of the Revolutionary War (1775-1783), from Lexington and Concord to Yorktown.
- Revised estimates suggest that between 10,000 or more could have served as soldiers, sailors, marines and civilian workers (referred to interchangeably as soldiers and patriots).
- For generations, historians had estimated that at least 5,000 served; however, less than half were known until the publication of Forgotten Patriots, African American and American Indian Patriots of the Revolutionary War (National Society Daughters of the American Revolution, 2008) that ended speculation with identities, deeds and hometowns.
- Other states, outside the original 13, also were home to black patriots, including Kentucky, Tennessee, Ohio, Louisiana, Maine, Vermont and Michigan. Liberty Fund DC has shared the names of local patriots with 426 cities, towns and counties in five states. These comprise dozens of congressional districts represented by both Democrats and Republicans.
- 4,807 patriots with known residences hail from the states represented on the House Armed Services Committee. There could be at least 2 to 6 million descendants, from Lexington and Yakima to Honolulu.
- Of the 62 members of Armed Services, 39 represent states where African American Revolutionary War Patriots once resided. 21 represent a community that claims at least one.
- 11 Republicans on Armed Services represent 280 patriots and 10 Democrats represent 715 -- a total of 995 patriots are represented by the members.
- A total of 60 counties and towns in Connecticut, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, North Carolina, Louisiana, Ohio, and Virginia have approved resolutions that honor the patriots and urge Congress to approve the National Liberty Memorial Act. These include a proclamation of Charlotte, N.C. declaring September 3, 2012, "Patriot Dempsey Reed One Nation Day."
- 1,730 patriots are honored, and specifically named, in these resolutions. County commissions and town councils approved them after exhaustive review by local historians. A Goochland County resolution honors 12 patriots. Over 50 are represented there in the 7th Virginia by the House Majority Leader. The descendants of multiple patriots reside in the Speaker's state of Ohio.
- The governors of Connecticut, Rhode Island North Carolina and Virginia (2008) issued proclamations honoring 2,450 patriots with known residences. The Connecticut General Assembly also did so.
- 12 counties and towns in 4 states represented on Armed Services approved resolutions. These honor 312 patriots (196 Republicans and 116 Democrats).
- Over two dozen articles were written about the local project alone, including a front-page story in the Providence Journal.
- Recent news: The Washington Times, "Tribute to black fighters in the Revolutionary War advances," and ct mirror, "Congress moves to honor Connecticut's black Revolutionary War fighters."
- As of 2010, the U.S. had 42,020,743 African American citizens. 37,854,925 are represented by 31 states on Armed Services.

Although there are no patriots in 11 populous states, like Texas, California and Mississippi, and less populous ones, like Washington State, New Mexico and Hawaii, there could be over 500,000 descendants among them. Washington State alone could have over 18,000. (See chart, page 5)

- Since 1984, when a Washington D.C. woman was refused membership, over 60 African Americans have become members of lineage societies that once were exclusive. Above, a DAR chapter in St. Augustine Florida donates a copy of "Forgotten Patriots" to the local library.

THE BOARD OF COMMISSIONERS OF THE COUNTY OF CRAVEN MET IN REGULAR SESSION IN THE MATTOCKS HALL OF THE NORTH CAROLINA
HISTORY CENTER, 529 SOUTH FRONT STREET, NEW BERN,
NORTH CAROLINA, ON MONDAY, JULY 2, 2012. THE MEETING
CONVENED AT 7:00 P.M.

MEMBERS PRESENT:

Chairman Lee Kyle Allen
Vice Chairman Scott C. Dacey
Commissioner Thomas F. Mark
Commissioner Theron L. McCabe
Commissioner Johnnie Sampson, Jr.
Commissioner Jefferey S. Taylor
Commissioner Steve Tyson

RESOLUTION RECOGNIZING CRAVEN COUNTY AFRICAN AMERICAN REVOLUTIONARY WAR PATRIOTS

The Board considered a request to adopt the following resolution recognizing Craven County's African American Revolutionary War Patriots, which was read into the record by the Chairman. Bernard George, local African American History enthusiast, addressed the Board in support of the resolution. Sheila Moore Cantine, family member of Revolutionary War Patriot, Simeon, Moore, was recognized to speak about her ancestors.

Commissioner Dacey urged citizens to call upon senators and house representatives to pass companion bills. Commissioner McCabe requested that any other living family members who are aware of their relationship to African American Revolutionary War patriots be recognized at the next meeting.

After discussion, it was the consensus to defer this until the December 3, 2012 meeting at the Stanley White Recreation Center to allow ample time for notice to the community. Commissioner McCabe moved to adopt the resolution, as presented, seconded by Commissioner Sampson and unanimously carried.
